Mr. C. V. Iyyu (Kunnamkulam): May I know, Sir, whether Government will be pleased to make it compulsory that all lower secondary schools in the State should have a physical training instructor?

Rao Sahib I. N. Menon (Director of Public Instruction): The whole scheme for the reorganisation of physical education is under review by Government and every effort will be made to include all the High Schools in the scheme. With regard to the lower secondary schools, according to the number and probably on account of the fact that many of the children are not fit for participation in the scheme which we have, it many not be possible to have whole-time and separate physical training instructors. But every effort will be made to have a teacher on the teacher's staff trained for the physical training work.
